

2011 NOMINATION FORM

This November, Twin Cities Business will honor five outstanding family-owned businesses, and the value they add to Minnesota's economy and overall quality of life. We'll be doing this via a feature story and event titled the Minnesota Family Business Awards.

We're looking for businesses with strong records of success, family involvement, community service and philanthropy, multi-generational culture, and positive family business structure.

If you know about a successful Minnesota family-owned business and the family behind it—and yes, it could be a client of yours, or even your own company—please share it with us.
